NECPA Mentor Declaration Form

The NECPA Commission supports a network of NECPA Accreditation Mentors. Mentors must have successfully completed the NECPA accreditation process and received full accreditation. NECPA Mentors are voluntarily making themselves available as a resource to programs in the accreditation process. Except on rare occasions which might be geographically feasible, NECPA Mentors will communicate with enrolled programs by telephone, mail and email. The NECPA Center of Operations will provide the contact information for Mentors upon receipt of this declaration form.
